

THE SCREWY JAZZ OF RAYMOND SCOTT

A unique free concert of the music of “the most well-known and influential unknown composer since the 16th-Century.” Scott composed many of the themes later used in “Looney Toons” cartoons including “Powerhouse”, “Dinner Music for a Pack of Hungry Cannibals”, and “Egyptian Barn Dance.”

Come hear the Caltech Jazz Quintette with special guest vocalist, Kjerstin Williams

Monday, May 18 2009, 8:00 PM

Dabney Lounge

California Institute of Technology

Call (626) 395-3295 or visit <http://bands.caltech.edu> for more information